If we can answer to our satisfaction, we then look at Step Six. We have emphasized willingness as being indispensable. Are we now ready to let God remove from us all the things which we have admitted are objectionable?

- Alcoholics Anonymous (Big Book), Into Action, page 76

Step 6 Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.

Tradition 6 (Short Form) An A.A. group ought never endorse, finance or lend the A.A. name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property and prestige divert us from our primary purpose. (Long Form) Problems of money, property, and authority may easily divert us from our primary spiritual aim. We think, therefore, that any considerable property of genuine use to A.A. should be separately incorporated and managed, thus dividing the material from the spiritual. An A.A. group, as such, should never go into business. Secondary aids to A.A., such as clubs or hospitals which require much property or administration, ought to be incorporated and so set apart that, if necessary, they can be freely discarded by the groups. Hence such facilities ought not to use the A.A. name. Their management should be the sole responsibility of those people who financially support them. For clubs, A.A. managers are usually preferred. But hospitals, as well as other places of recuperation, ought to be well outside A.A.—and medically supervised. While an A.A. group may cooperate with anyone, such cooperation ought never go so far as affiliation or endorsement, actual or implied. An A.A. group can bind itself to no one.

Concept 6 (Short Form) The Conference recognizes that the chief initiative and activeresponsibility in most world service matters should be exercised by the trustee members of the Conference acting as the General Service Board.

(Long Form) On behalf of A.A. as a whole, our General Service Conference has the principle responsibility for the maintenance of our world services, and it traditionally has the final decision respecting large matters of general policy and finance. But the Conference also recognizes that the chief initiative and the active responsibility in most of these matters should be exercised primarily by the Trustee members of the Conference when they act among themselves as the General Service Board of Alcoholics Anonymous.

“Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character” -- is A.A.’s way of stating the best possible attitude one can take in order to make a beginning on this lifetime job.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Well - it's back to reprints once again. Overall, I actually enjoy doing reprints - but that's from a somewhat selfish standpoint. It gives me a chance to search for and read several past Grapevine and Box 459 articles that I may not have read before - and therefore learning more about AA, sobriety, recovery, spirituality, etc. And growing spiritually and in my own recovery. I hope you enjoy the reprints I choose to publish - please feel free to suggest favorites, keeping in mind the 300-500 word guideline.

I've requested that local fellowship members write articles for publication in PIO, even suggesting pertinent topics (what conventions are and mean to you, Spanish Central Office, etc.) that would be of great interest to local readers. The response to my requests have been mixed - sometimes articles come in and most of the time they don't. As far as suggesting topics, the response I've gotten is "yes, that's an excellent topic" and then no articles come in on the suggested topic.

I'm not going to appeal to you for locally written articles anymore after this. If you'd like to see articles written by members of the local fellowship: 1) Write one (duh) or 2) Encourage someone else to write one (a friend, sponsor, sponsee, old-timer, newcomer, etc). If you choose to remain complacent and rest on your laurels, so be it...

This month marks the first publication of the quarterly Group Contributions Report (page 7). There are many events this month including the Area 46 AA Convention (June 7-9), a free showing of "Bill W.: The Documentary" (June 10th - Founders Day) and many other happenings both this month and in the upcoming months (see "AA Events Calendar" on page 6. If your group or district has an upcoming event, please get the details to me ASAP so I can get it out in print.

The Sobriety Birthday list is starting to grow a bit - it used to be a full page years and years ago. Hopefully this trend will continue.

SUBMISSIONS for PIO publication (articles, stories, announcements, flyers, sobriety birthdays, etc.), letters to the editor, questions, comments, suggestions and criticism are always welcomed at PassItOn@albuquerqueaa.org and will receive a prompt reply and appropriate consideration for publication.

Have you heard about the Media Library at Central Office? For only a small deposit you can listen to a vast collection of AAs telling their stories from all walks of life, and during many different times of AA History. Sixty-five new titles have been added since January. We have archival recordings of Dr. Bob, Bill W., Ebby T. and even Betty F. Many of the stories are told by New Mexico AAs. There's a story here that you can relate to, so stop on by Central Office and peruse the catalogs!

Tradition Six

Copyright © The A.A. Grapevine, Inc., May 1948

The sixth of our Twelve Points of AA Tradition is deemed so important that it states at length the relation of the AA movement to money and property.

This Tradition declares in substance that the accumulation of money, property, and the unwanted personal authority so often generated by material wealth comprise a cluster of serious hazards against which an AA group must ever be on guard.

Tradition Six also enjoins the group never to go into business nor ever to lend the AA name or money credit to any "outside" enterprise, no matter how good. Strongly expressed is the opinion that even clubs should not bear the AA name; that they ought to be separately incorporated and managed by those individual AAs who need or want clubs enough to financially support them.

We would thus divide the spiritual from the material, confine the AA movement to its sole aim, and ensure (however wealthy as individuals we may become) that AA itself shall always remain poor. We dare not risk the distractions of corporate wealth. They have become certainties, absolute verities for us.

Thank God, we AAs have never yet been caught in the kind of religious or political disputes which embroil the world of today. But we ought to face the fact that we have often quarreled violently about money, property, and the administration thereof. Money, in quantity, has always been a baleful influence in group life. Let a well-meaning donor present an AA group with a sizable sum and we break loose. Nor does trouble abate until that group, as such, somehow disposes of its bankroll. This experience is practically universal. "But," say our friends, "isn't this a confession of weakness? Other organizations do a lot of good with money. Why not AA?"

Of course, we of AA would be the first to say that many a fine enterprise does a lot of good with a lot of money. To these efforts money is usually primary; it is their lifeblood. But money is not the lifeblood of AA. With us, it is very secondary. Even in small quantities, it is scarcely more than a necessary nuisance, something we wish we could do without entirely. Why is that so?

We explain that easily enough; we don't need money. The core of AA procedure is one alcoholic talking to another, whether that be sitting on a curbstone, in a home, or at a meeting. It's the message, not the place; it's the talk, not the aims. That does our work. Just places to meet and talk, that's about all AA needs. Beyond these, a few small offices, a few secretaries at their desks, a few dollars apiece a year, easily met by voluntary contributions. Trivial indeed, our expenses!

Nowadays, the AA group answers its well-wishers saying: "Our expenses are trifling. As good earners, we can easily pay them. As we neither need nor want money, why risk its hazards? We'd rather stay poor. Thanks just the same!"

On Cultivating Tolerance

by Dr. Bob S.

Copyright © AA Grapevine, Inc July 1944

During nine years in AA, I have observed that those who follow the Alcoholics Anonymous program with the greatest earnestness and zeal not only maintain sobriety but often acquire finer characteristics and attitudes as well. One of these is tolerance. Tolerance expresses itself in a variety of ways: in kindness and consideration toward the man or woman who is just beginning the march along the spiritual path; in the understanding of those who perhaps have been less fortunate in education advantages; and in sympathy toward those whose religious ideas may seem to be at great variance with our own.

I am reminded in this connection of the picture of a hub with its radiating spokes. We all start at the outer circumference and approach our destination by one of many routes. To say that one spoke is much better than all the other spokes is true only in the sense of its being best suited to you as an individual. Human nature is such that without some degree of tolerance, each one of us might be inclined to believe that we have found the best or perhaps the shortest spoke. Without some tolerance, we might tend to become a bit smug or superior - which, of course, is not helpful to the person we are trying to help and may be quite painful or obnoxious to others. No one of us wishes to do anything that might act as a deterrent to the advancement of another - and a patronizing attitude can readily slow up this process.

Tolerance furnishes, as a by-product, a greater freedom from the tendency to cling to preconceived ideas and stubbornly adhered-to opinions. In other words, it often promotes an open-mindedness that is vastly important - is, in fact, a prerequisite to the successful termination of any line of search, whether it be scientific or spiritual.

These, then, are a few of the reasons why an attempt to acquire tolerance should be made by each one of us.

The achievement of freedom from fear is a lifetime undertaking, one that can never be wholly completed. When under heavy attack, acute illness, or in other conditions of serious insecurity, we shall all react to this emotion - well or badly, as the case may be. only the self-deceived will claim perfect freedom from fear.

- Alcoholics Anonymous (The Big Book), page 55

Minutes from last month accepted.

Treasurer's Report - Total Revenues: $9,061.03 0 - Cost of Sales: $2,919.41 - Gross Income: $6,141.62 - Total Expenses: $5,888.85 - Net Income: $252.77 - This month is much better than last month. - This is right where we like to be.

Central Office Coordinator - Desk has had good coverage. - Total calls: 800, walk-ins: 209, web hits: 3326 - One group that does night phones had a member call who did not have all the tools and numbers that help when taking on that shift. I will talk to that group. - Went to round-up, and Pam helped a lot. - World service now sells literature that you can order on-line. However, it will be cheaper to buy it from us because you will not have to pay for the shipping fee. - We bought a new Adobe program for the PIO editor and the schedule editor is going to try it as well. That cost $90.00. - The special needs chair has had an increase cost come up for more ASL interpretation. We voted on a budgeted amount of no more than $200 a month which will fund one meeting per week per client.

Alternate Central Office Coordinator

Member at Large - Brought some figures last month about placing an advertisement in the paper. You wanted me to put together a proposal. I propose we do the Albuquerque Journal and the Alibi, due to them both getting different circulation and a different group of readers. - Candle light, Strange Mental Blank Spot, Serenity group, and Sunrise Catchers vote for placement of the advertisement. High Noon is in favor of what the group decides. - Motion: We put an advertisement in the alibi once a month and one in the Albuquerque Journal for the next 2 running's: - Discussion: I propose we track this and make sure this has an effect. - Vote: All in favor none opposed.

Pass it On Editor

Media Librarian

Web Guardian - Not much going on, sent a lot of e-mail Pass It On's out this month. - The interactive map is wonderful.

Schedule Editor

Community Outreach - Not a whole lot going on. The re-integration center is still up

Special Needs Coordinator

OLD BUSINESS - Following up with the issue of the request for housing for the people coming for the Balloon Fiesta: We ended up voting to not help house people when visiting town. In the future the steering committee will be more direct at what we want. - Central Office Picnic: - Melissa: we discussed the budget at the steering committee. - One question brought up: Which volunteers is this for and why? This central office is so important for me and for the groups here. It is run by volunteers who help for free- that is the purpose of this picnic- to show our appreciation for those volunteers. - We are going to have food, music, porta- potty, a pa system, maybe a gratitude meeting. - We found someone who is going to donate a generator. - Please go back to your groups to see if anyone is willing to help. - Passing around a sign-up sheet for items we would like people or groups to donate. - What about the sign-up sheet? I will need to ask my group. We will leave the sheet at central Office so you can sign up after discussing it with your group. - Do we want to have the group contributions posted on the web quarterly? - I say no, it's already on the online version, why splash it out on the website. - Since we are a program of honesty- why should we omit this information?

NEW BUSINESS - Next month's rep meeting falls on the same weekend as the State Convention. Do we want to change it to the following Sunday? - No let's stop changing stuff around. If you can't make it send someone else from your group.

GROUP ANNOUNCEMENTS - May 25th District 3 is hosting a workshop on P.I. & cooperating with the public. From 2-5 pm @ 600 Coors potluck. - July 20th District 11 is hosting a Sponsorship workshop: Sponsorship FAQs. From 1:30-5pm @ Shepherd of the Valley Church.

Close @ 15:01
