Our Three Legacies: Recovery—Unity—Service

Recovery

Step 11:—Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood Him, praying only for knowledge of His will for us and the power to carry that out.

Unity

Tradition 11(Short Form) . Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion; we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio, and films.

(Long Form): Our relations with the general public should be characterized by personal anonymity. We think A.A. ought to avoid sensational advertising. Our names and pictures as A.A. members ought not be broadcast, filmed, or publicly printed. Our public relations should be guided by the principle of attraction rather than promotion. There is never need to praise ourselves. We feel it better to let our friends recommend us.

Service

Concept 11 (Short Form). The trustees should always have the best possible committees, corporate service directors, executives, staffs, and consultants. Composition, qualifications, induction procedures, and rights and duties will always be matters of serious concern.

(Long Form): While the Trustees hold final responsibility for A.A.'s world service administration, they should always have the assistance of the best possible standing committees, corporate service directors, executives, staffs, and consultants. Therefore the composition of these underlying committees and service boards, the personal qualifications of their members, the manner of their induction into service, the systems of their rotation, the way in which they are related to each other, the special rights and duties of our executives, staffs, and consultants, together with a proper basis for the financial compensation of these special workers, will always be matters for serious care and concern.

Where do we find this power greater than ourselves?

I just came from an AA Meeting here in Albuquerque, New Mexico. At the meeting the topic was pages 84-85 of our Big Book; I shared and so did many others. Each had a slightly different take on the meanings of various words and the correct method of applying the Program of Alcoholics Anonymous. Some of those who shared were new in sobriety; others had many years sober.

I think all of those who are sober and still coming to meetings and working the program are right! It occurred to me that our program is meant to be "customized" as it were, provided that the end result is the same—sobriety and (if we choose) a better quality of life! I think that the original 12 Step Program was a combination of:

1. Other programs already in existence,
2. The personal experience of those involved, and
3. God as He was understood at the time

However, the main object of our Big Book is to help us to find a power greater than ourselves that will solve our drink problem; this was the intent then and it still works today!

I suspect that after we are sober the extent to which we take the steps and apply them to all areas of our lives is up to each individual member of our fellowship. A fellow once said in a meeting, that as far as he was concerned "if we are sober our program is working; if we are sober and happy, then our program is really working!" The deeper I research, the more I uncover and the more I learn about our Program; it seems to morph into something I did not suspect it to be when I first began my recovery journey. This is God in action I believe; another member was fond of saying that sobriety is a "never-ending story—more will constantly be revealed to us!" I think there is truth in both these statements.

I learn something new about our program almost every day; this is a good thing to me. One thing that has not changed for me is the effectiveness of the AA Program with my alcoholism and my sober life. What I choose to do with it thereafter is a voyage of discovery—I may go down one path only to find that there is a better, more improved path that I can follow. There are many paths that lead to the same destination for me, as long as I continue to stay sober, practice the principles of AA in my life and trust God, clean house and help others; I am on the correct path. The journey is mine—the fact that I am sober and (I think) relatively happy is the miracle of AA; man gets himself in all sorts of trouble in this life—only God (as I understand Him) can resolve these situations.

Where do we find this power greater than ourselves or God? When I first came into AA I looked all over for this God of my understanding; I now know that He was here with me all along, inside me (see page 55, Big Book of AA).

11th Step Prayer (Prayer of St Francis of Assisi)

Lord, make me a channel of thy peace -
That where there is hatred, I may bring love
That where there is wrong,
I may bring the spirit of forgiveness
That where there is discord, I may bring harmony
That where there is error, I may bring truth
That where there is doubt, I may bring faith
That where there is despair, I may bring hope
That where there are shadows, I may bring light
That where there is sadness, I may bring joy.
Lord, grant that I may seek rather to comfort
than to be comforted
To understand, than to be understood
To love, than to be loved.
For it is by self-forgetting that one finds.
It is by forgiving that one is forgiven.
It is by dying that one awakens to Eternal Life.
Amen."
